

Please contact the Sponsor of each club for more information.

Club Name	Sponsor Name (s)	Email Address	Short Description of Club and Activities
Academic Decathlon	Tim Dixon, Jessica Short	jshort@g.coppellisd.com	A team consisting of six to nine members who compete in 10 different events based around a central topic. Learners compete in: Math, Science, History, Economics, Literature, Art, Music, Essay, Speech, and Interview.
Academic Quiz Bowl Team	Stephanie Spaete	sspaete@g.coppellisd.com	The academic quiz bowl team is a group of individuals who gather together to learn and study various concepts from history, literature, fine arts, social studies, geography, and general knowledge in order to compete at buzzer-based team competitions in the Dallas metroplex and on the national circuit. The team also prepares for subject specific "Bee and Bowl" competitions in addition and works to create a team question set for use in events.
Animation Club	Cindy Wolfe	cwolfe@g.coppellisd.com	Students practice, create and talk about animation.
App and Web Development Club	Joe Musgrave	jmusgrave@g.coppellisd.com	Club to allow students to explore and learn about app and web development
Art History Club	Michelle Haukse	mhauske@g.coppellisd.com	The purpose of the Art History Club is to promote an interest in all things art and art history. We want to facilitate the discussion of art historical topics, plan community involvement projects, provide research and study help for AP art history students, and coordinate trips to museums and galleries.
Artificial Intelligence Club	Michael Finnegan	mfinnegan@g.coppellisd.com	The AI club fosters interests of Artificial Intelligence in students. We do everything from coding workshops and open discussions, to guest speaking events and lectures.
Astronomy/AAVSO	Stephanie Sloane	ssloane@g.coppellisd.com	Actively conduct research on variable stars and submit to an organization
Best Buddies	Courtney Pope & Jay Jones	cpope@g.coppellisd.com	One to one friendship between peers with and without intellectual & developmental disabilities. Monthly events such as movie night, friendsgiving, game night, etc
Board Game Club	HannaTreece	htreece@g.coppellisd.com	A small group of learners will meet to play board games. This allows for strategic thinking and builds thinking and communication skills as well as working with partners or teammates.
BuildOn!	Jared Stansel	jstansel@g.coppellisd.com	Our three main focuses as a club are to advocate for the right to be educated, increase cultural awareness, and fundraise to build a school in a developing country.
Cash Club - Investments	Bruce Stewart	bstewart@g.coppellisd.com	Educate learners about personal finance and investing and provide an on-line app for simulating the stock market.

CHETA (Coppell High for the Ethical Treatment of Animals)	Angela Barnes	abarnes@g.coppellisd.com	Small group of passionate people raising awareness and support for animals in need, locally and globally.
Chinese Club	Andrea Voelker	avoelker@coppellisd.com	The Chinese Club has the intentions of not only spreading the culture and language for other students, but to also participate in major hallmark events. Some activities we plan on doing would be gathering club members to participate and help out with the annual Chinese New Year Event, as well as planning field trips for the Chinese III class.
CHS Book Club	Deb Zeman, Trisha Goins	tgoins@coppellisd.com	The CHS Book Club members gather to talk about books, authors, and our favorite series. We love discussing new books and sharing our observations with each other. We bring food to share with the group. Come join us!
CHS Yoga and Meditation Club (YMC)	Angela Barnes	abarnes@g.coppellisd.com	Small group of people dedicated to the practice of yoga and meditation for stress management and relaxation.
Computer Science Club	Michael Finnegan	mfinnegan@g.coppellisd.com	A club dedicated to the education and promotion of Computer Science. We hold weekly meeting where we go over topics and we participate in various competitions throughout the year.
Cooking for a Cause	Gary Beyer	gbeyer@g.coppellisd.com	Organization designed to educate on cooking techniques and donate to events and charities in and near the Coppell community
Coppell 1 Million Meals	Michael Brock	mbrock@g.coppellisd.com	Organization of a charity effort to pack 100,000 meals for the organization "Feed My Starving Children" each year for the next 10 years.
Coppell Be the Change	Jared Stansel	jstansel@g.coppellisd.com	Promote community involvement. Provide more philanthropic opportunities by making organizational connections and community outreach.
Coppell Chess Team	Scott Shelby	sshelby@g.coppellisd.com	Chess Team is for students who play chess or are interested in learning how to play chess. We welcome players of all skill levels, from beginners to State Champions. The Chess Team competes in periodic tournaments and competitions.
Coppell HS Bass Club	Gene Eitelman	geitelman@g.coppellisd.com	For students who fish in competitive bass tournaments or who just love to fish period.
Coppell Investment and Finance Club	Jared Stansel	jstansel@g.coppellisd.com	Help student to develop a basic understanding of investment and finance options in the real world. Have speakers for that end and to compete in competitive events focused on investment.
Coppell Solar Car	Rob Gribble	rgribble@g.coppellisd.com	Design and build solar cars for a yearly solar car challenge race held in July.

Cowboy Kitchen Club (NEW)	Dolores Gordon	gtg8168@g.coppellisd.com	Cowboy Kitchen Club is a new CHS-approved club created by seniors and is kicking off their year with the Shirts For a Cause Campaign. We are selling the shirts below for $15.00 each. All proceeds will go towards grocery store gift cards and food needs for Coppell students and families. This need continues to be more important than ever as we navigate through this pandemic and our fellow Coppellians need our love and support during this time.
Creative Writing Club	Matt Bowden	mbowden@g.coppellisd.com	Students talk about creative writing, share writing samples, and write impromptu stores and poems.
D&amp;D Club	Mike McMillon	mmcmillon@coppellisd.com	We are going to partake in creative collaborative exercises, focused primarily on problem solving in various situations and creative team building.
Dance to Make a Difference	Angela Barnes	abarnes@g.coppellisd.com	A dance club that holds an annual show that raises funds for an organization of our choice.
Debate	Jason Sykes	jsykes@g.coppellisd.com	Competitive Debate Team
DECA	Andrea Pirtle	apirtle@coppellisd.com	Professional Leadership Organization featuring Entrepreneurs in Management, Finance and Hospitality
Drama Club	Karen Ruth	kruth@g.coppellisd.com	Theatre squad UNITE! We play improv games, run lots of charitable donation drives, support our theatre family, stay updated on department happenings, eat fresh baked goods, enjoy all things theatre, and HAVE FUN!
Drawing Club	Cameron Tiede	ctiede@g.coppellisd.com	Student meet together to build their drawing skills
Earth &amp; Space Science Club	Angela Barnes	abarnes@g.coppellisd.com	Students in either ESS or Astronomy who are interested in an overnight camping trip in April to fossil hunt and stargaze away from city lights.
Environmental Action Club	Gulshan Mir	gmir@g.coppellisd.com	Purpose: To foster awareness & compassion for a sustainable environment & promote environmentalism by • Educating youth about eco-friendly sustainable practices to preserve environment. • Volunteering and instigating change within the Coppell community. • Spreading awareness for the environment, with an emphasis on utilizing cleaner energy and minimizing carbon footprint. • Training and encouraging the next generation of environmental leaders.
FCCLA	Raneta Ansley	ransley@COPPELLISD.COM	FCCLA is the only career and technical in-school student organization with the family as the central focus. Participation in state and national programs and chapter activities help members become strong leaders in family, careers and communities.

FOOD FOR AMERICA	Nathalie Deines	ndeines@g.coppellisd.com	Food for America will collect money and food items to donate to the National Organization : "Feeding America" for a whole school year through various events.
Gaming Club	Alex Holmes, Maxx Lazos	aholmes@g.coppellisd.com	A social gaming club for all platforms! Video, board, strategy, card, if it's a game, we'll play it!
Gay Straight Alliance	Emily Holmes	eholmes@coppellisd.com	We get together and speak on LGBT+ issues and history. We are hoping to host a bake sale and participate in the Day of Silence for this year as well as different LGBT+ Awareness days.
Girls Coding Club	Micheal Finnegan	mfinnegan@g.coppellisd.com	A club designed to introduce girls to computer science and to strengthen the skills of those who have already learned. With their knowledge, they will be going to middle schools to volunteer and teach girls there too.
Habitat for Humanity	Stephanie Sloane	ssloane@g.coppellisd.com	We partner with the larger Habitat for Humanity organization to help raise funds and raise homes for those less fortunate.
Hair For Hope	Krissy Baker	kbaker@g.coppellisd.com	Hair for Hope is a club that is focused on getting donations for various hair donation organizations and cancer foundations. The club's purpose is to allow teenagers to help others and be able to share something such as hair instead of money to make a child with cancers life a little brighter. The club is selling scrunchies and various trendy items to raise money to donate to nonprofit foundations. If enough girls in high school want to donate their hair the club can invite a nonprofit organization that does cut-a-thons to do a mass cutting maybe during a pep rally
Hats for Hope	Stephanie Spaete	sspaete@g.coppellisd.com	This club makes hats for women's and children's shelters.
HOSA - Future Health Professionals	Martha Eitelman, Gary Beyer, Trace Grisso, Jennifer Bullock, @ CHS9: Bill Borowski, Victoria Reyes	gbeyer@g.coppellisd.com	National organization for students who have an interest in a career in any health field. Students can but do not have to: compete, volunteer, raise money for national benefactor (2019-2020 is National Pediatric Cancer Foundation)
I Dare to Be	Michael Brock	mbrock@g.coppellisd.com	I Dare to Be is the organizing body for gatherings and events for IB candidates outside of the classroom.
INTERNATIONAL CULINARY EXPRESS CLUB	Dayna Bryant	dbryant@coppellisd.com	Students can have a fun learning experience that includes cooking, presenting, and studying different regions of the world.
Junior World Affairs Council (JWAC)	Mashal Khan, Maxx Lazos	mkhan@g.coppellisd.com	The goal of JWAC is to educate and engage the local community in national and international affairs.
Korean Culture Club	Bona Coogle	bcoogle@g.coppellisd.com	Learning about Korean Cultures and language

Language Beyond Borders	Shauna Carter	sbcarter@g.coppellisd.com	Our mission is to help students who come to our district with limited English to feel welcomed, comfortable, and supported as they navigate the intricacies of school and life in the US.
Mathematical Association of America	Ian Vanderschee	ivanderschee@coppellisd.com	Teach and instruct mathematical concepts, problem-solving techniques, and host practice sessions for the AMC, AIME, and USAMO competitions hosted by the MAA.
Model United Nations	Bybiana Houghton	bhoughton@g.coppellisd.com	Model United Nations strives to make students more aware of global issues and challenges them by competing in regional conferences.
Mu Alpha Theta	Krissy Baker	kbaker@g.coppellisd.com	Mu Alpha Theta is a national organization to spark interest and discussion around mathematics and spread that interest to others
Music Composition and Jamming Club	Annie Chernow	achernow@g.coppellisd.com	Work together to compose music using Music Composition software
Muslim Student Association Club	Gulshan Mir	gmir@g.coppellisd.com	Promotes awareness interfaith awareness and dialogue; also strategies to cope stress.
National Art Honor Society	Michelle Hauske	mhauske@g.coppellisd.com	The mission of the National Art Honor Society is to promote art appreciation and support art education. NAHS Members share their passion for the visual arts through service activities, both in the school and throughout the surrounding community. NAHS has served organizations such as CISD, The Gatehouse Women's Shelter, Assistance League of Coppell, Citizens Police Academy of Coppell, and the Coppell Farmer's Market. You will find NAHS members coordinating art making workshops, face painting at events, designing wall murals and theater sets, and mentoring young artists.
National Rare Diseases Club	Maxx Lazos	mlazos@g.coppellisd.com	To spread awareness of rare diseases each month around the world by making posters, fundraising, and volunteering.
National Technical Honor Society (NTHS)	Mike Yakubovsky	myakubovsky@g.coppellisd.com	The Honor Society representing members of the CHS Career & Technical Student Organizations.
Ping Pong Club	Alex Holmes	aholmes@g.coppellisd.com	A social sports club with irregular tournaments!
Red Jackets	Kristia Leyendecker	kleyendecker@g.coppellisd.com	CHS Ambassadors
Rhythm Club	Malloy Phillips	mphillips@g.coppellisd.com	This club aims to share the Indian culture with the students of CHS through various different types of dance from classical and folk to bollywood.
SADD - Students Against Drinking &amp; Drugs	Kristia Leyendecker	kleyendecker@g.coppellisd.com	Bring awareness to encourage students to not drink or do drugs

Science Club	Holly Anderson	handerson@coppellisd.com	The primary focus of this club is to promote participation and to help students perform well in the chemistry and biology olympiads. The first club meetings will provide important details about these competitions, while the remainder will be devoted to preparing for these competitions
Self Defense Club	Bill Parker	bparker@g.coppellisd.com	Girls will work on self defense strategies in preparation for college
Society of Women Engineers (SWE)	Mike Yakubovsky	myakubovsky@g.coppellisd.com	Encouraging young women at CHS to pursue STEM careers and opportunities.
Tech Savvy Seniors	Trace Grisso	tagrisso@g.coppellisd.com	Helping Senior Citizens use technology.
TSA	Stan Burnett, Mike Yakubovsky, Michael McMillon	myakubovsky@g.coppellisd.com	The Technology Student Association (TSA) provides student members the opportunity to explore a wide variety of (science, technology, engineering, and math) STEM career interest areas.
UIL Social Studies	Connor Blake	cblake@g.coppellisd.com	UIL Social Studies examines a particular topic each year to learn more about social studies and specific historical topics.
Values for Veterans	Michael Brock	mbrock@g.coppellisd.com	Values for Veterans works to organize support for US military veterans and for local veterans events.
Young Republicans Club	Gene Eitelman	geitelman@g.coppellisd.com	Students meet together to discuss current topics, trends and conservative areas of thought.